

National Theatre of the Deaf will be attending the National Association for the Deaf's 50th Biennial Conference on July 6-10 2010 in Philadelphia! The NAD Conference traditionally brings together more than 2,000 deaf, hard of hearing, late-deafened, deaf-blind and hearing consumers, parents, youth, professionals, educators, organizational and corporate representatives for professional development, enrichment, training, networking, governance exhibits and networking receptions. It is a major opportunity for the Deaf Community and organizations that serve them to meet on common ground and make plans for the future.
